

Curriculum vitae of BERNARD KLATT

---

1971
British Columbia Institute of Technology area of telecommunications specialty
two-year program

1973
Digital Equipment of Canada position: Field Service Technician

District Technical Support Representative for Western Canada 1975-1977

Regional Technical Support Representative based in Kanata 1977-1979

1979-1981
Digital Equipment Corporation
Santa Clara, CA
Regional Technical Support Representative for Western U.S.A.
Western Region Tech Support team

- Worked with defense contractors, large corporations, and Fortune 100 companies,
- successfully passed Digital's internal engineering review board becoming: National Tech Support Engineer
- Worked with a range of products including PDP-8, PDP-12, PDP-15, PDP-11 product lines
- Worked with ARPAnet and Ethernet (Co-Developed by Digital)

1981-1985
General Electric - Calma, Fremont, CA
National Technical Support Representative

- company that specialized in design and sale of high-end CAD/CAM systems, computer aided design and computer aided manufacturing
- research and development of high-speed broadband coaxial data networking of CAD/CAM systems
- installation and troubleshooting of various customer systems at General

Electric subsidiaries throughout the U.S., installing CAD/CAM systems for places like GE Locomotive, Raytheon, various colleges and universities that were buying the CAD/CAM systems including locations in S. Korea, Japan and Taiwan
-Systems were in the price range of half a million to three million dollars

1985-1988

Philips-Signetec Corporation, Sunnyvale, CA
Network Systems Support Specialist

- installing and troubleshooting computer systems, data and network installations throughout U.S.A., Korea, Japan and Taiwan
- Planned, installed and setup their campus-wide fibre-optic network
- responsible for troubleshooting and maintaining network systems to company locations via satellite links to Korea, Thailand and leased data lines to New Mexico and Utah locations

1988-Present

Fairview Technology Centre Ltd

- Internet Service Provider to Oliver and Osoyoos area (first residential Internet access via cablemodem in Canada)
- Provided internet access to local School District, newspaper, municipal governments, many businesses, and hundreds of local subscribers
- provide a wide range of computer-related products and services in our service area.
- Installation of personal computers;
- Install and design local area networks for our customers. Designed and setup LAN for both the municipal government locations in Oliver and Osoyoos. Have installed local area networks for quite a large number of the businesses in the area.
- Provide computer dealer services and functions in terms of supplying personal computer systems, peripheral devices, accessories and software.
- In 1995 worked with BC Tel to specify and arrange for the installation of the high-speed digital access circuit

Memberships

B.C. Internet Association: 1995 - 1999
participating member

Electronic Frontier Canada: 1995 - 1999
participating member

1971-1990

Electrical and Electronic Engineers' Association associate member

Professional Conferences Attended

1995 and 1996

Internet World Conference and Exposition
San Jose , California

1997

Comdex Exposition
Las Vegas, Nevada

Certifications:

CompTIA - A+, Network+, iNet+, Server+

Accepted by CHRC as expert witness in CHRC v. Ernst Zundel

Accepted by BCHRC as expert witness in BCHRC v. John Misca

Teaching Experience

Okanagan College:

taught night school courses on the Internet